Pre-Trial Meetings Set in Dahmer Case

HATTIESBURG (AP) — Court officials here say pre-trial conferences are scheduled Monday in federal conspiracy charges against 16 men charged in the 1966 firebomb death of Negro leader Vernon F. Dahmer.

U.S. Dist. Judge Dan M. Russell Jr. will confer with attorneys involved in an effort to speed proceedings when the trials start April 28.

Dahmer died following the attack on his home and grocery in the Kelly settlement north here Jan. 10, 1966.